Preparing Tomorrow's Leaders Lion News

Chester J. Arizmendi
 Principal

That was a quick end to the first week of the second six weeks. In reflection, what did your six week data say about your students versus the instructional support that they have been receiving? If any, what was the failure rates for your classes? If applicable, what will you pledge to do differently that you have not already done?

District Admin Walkthrough: As discussed in the faculty & SBDM meeting, members from our Superintendent's team will be coming by to conduct walkthroughs in our classes---actually, I got a phone call that this will happen this coming week on Wednesday, October 2nd; therefore, please be ready with the non-negotiables and daily instructional strategies that you are implementing in your classes.

Open House: Tuesday, October 1, 2019 from 5:30 p.m.-7:30 p.m. All certified personnel are required to attend. If you plan to meet in teams please post a message on your door where to report. All classrooms must be organized and free of clutter. Hallways must contain a wall of student work. Attire is professional dress. Men must wear ties (a sports jacket for extra credit).

A parent meeting was held on Friday to provide information and receive feedback on the school's action plan for success. Our next parent meeting with other topics will be held on Monday, September 30th.

Congratulations to the "Loyalist" and winners of the Region One Social Studies Success Academy--Mr. Vega, Mr. Encinia, and Mrs. Rodriguez.
